QUESTION 23 Poor now

Stress genuinely and try to avoid facetiousness at this point. Question 23 (a) explores what the informant understands by feeling "poor". If the word "poor" seems inappropriate use the alternative "very hard up".

QUESTION 24 Poverty

Stress the word "poverty". Do not explain what you think it means if you are asked. Seek from the informant his definition and write it in the box as clearly as you can.

QUESTION 25 Voting

Ask for those old enough to have voted in the last election (March 1965). We are not concerned who they voted for (although they will probably say) but would like to know if they are sufficiently involved to vote at all. Be careful to reassure people that this is confidential and as far as you are concerned non-voting is blameless—many people consider that voting is legally compulsory or morally obligatory and so voting figures are over-estimated. Try to get a clear recollection by fixing the incident (time of day, who they went with) if necessary. Stress National, not local elections.

QUESTION 26 Action on poverty

We are interested in what the informant thinks can be done. Give as full an answer as possible.

Please write in any additional notes.

Married Very disgruntled individual, bare signs of stress, heavy. Had one time been working a very long day to try to make ends meet & this had wrecked his health. Family had been in difficulties with housing for many years, and this house is only acceptable because it's been nicely done up - they feel the council should give them a better house or help towards repair of this one. Had trouble with car tax & gave a hair-raising account of the power of the gas ~~board~~ board. Fortunately could nick up a little for themselves - wife well-presented & determined. Children well-behaved in interview but like in other interviews youngest went to sleep downstairs & were then transferred upstairs to sleep.

Family are ^{feeling} distinctly better off as mother now waiting for first time and two eldest sons in the army (mother went on about them for half an hour, eyes glowing). Thus they've now got a car and are able for the first time to go on outings.
